Trilithic Launches New Interactive Website

Indianapolis, Indiana (Monday, February 10, 2003) Trilithic is pleased to announce the launch of a new and enhanced website featuring "one-click" menu styles for easier access to products and resources, more product tutorials, educational Tech Files and other resources available for download. This new website also highlights the ability to update and upgrade products such as the 860 DSP or WorkBench Software simply by downloading the latest firmware. Other customer interaction areas include RFQ Online, Online Technical Support and Customer Service, and an area where customers can provide feedback on our products and services.
